SINCLAIR AND MEL DAUGHERTY DEFY SENATE; BOTH WILL LOOK TO COURTS TO KEEP THEM FROM OBEYING MANDATES

OIL MAGNATE WILL PLEAD NOT GUILTY AND STAND A TRIAL

By KENNETH CLARK
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

Washington, April 12.—Promising a fight to the Supreme Court of the United States, Attorneys for Harry F. Sinclair, multi-millionaire lessee of Teapot Dome, announced that the oil magnate would again plead "not guilty" in court here today to an indictment charging him with contempt of the Senate for refusal to answer questions propounded by members of the Public Lands committee.

Martin W. Littleton, Chief of Sinclair's legal staff arrived in Washington this morning to file a demurrer to the indictment.

Holding that the question of Sinclair's contempt was one of law rather than of fact, Littleton was expected to demand that the case be tried before a judge, waiving a jury trial. Special counsel for the government, Owen J. Roberts and Atlee Pomerene were understood to be favorable to Littleton's suggestion.

Settlement of the issues raised in Sinclair's refusal to answer questions was regarded as of supreme importance to determine the power and authority of congressional committees to investigate individuals and corporations, and compel attendance of witnesses and records.

Scintillating Stars of Democracy Will Not Be Jefferson Day Banqueters

New York, April 12. (INS.)—Prominent Democrats from all sections of the country were gathered here today to attend the annual Jefferson Day dinner of the National Democratic Club tonight. As has been the custom, the club has invited all presidential possibilities to attend.

The list of guests made public today indicates there will be some vacant chairs in the row reserved for "presidential possibilities." Many regrets that previous engagements would prevent their attendance, and some went by default, failing to reply to invitations.

Among the missing will be Wm. Gibbs McAdoo, and James M. Cox, candidates in 1920; Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas, who had accepted and was scheduled to make the main address of the evening; Senator Walsh of Montana, who was not away from Washington; Senator Elihu Root of New York, who speaks in Virginia tonight.

The gathering will not be without notable, however, prominent party leaders from all sections being on the list of reservations.

The speakers will be Frank L. Polk, former cabinet member; Thomas E. Dewey, president of the club; J. Bruce Brown of Montana, vice chairman of the national committee; John W. Davis, former Ambassador to England; Gov. Silzer, of New Jersey; Gov. Ritchie, of Maryland, and Gov. Smith, of New York.

Congress Is Paying Little Or No Attention To The Protest Of The Japanese

Washington, April 12.—Congress today accepted Japan's challenge over the Japanese exclusion amendment to the Immigration bill, pending both in the Senate and the House.

In face of the vigorous protest of the Japanese Ambassador to Secretary Hughes, a poll of both houses indicate the exclusion amendment would be enacted by a substantial margin. The lower chamber was expected to pass the bill late today, but delay was promised in the Senate because of the intention of several Senators to assail the Hughes-Hanbara diplomatic correspondence.

Juniata Hi-Y Is Feted Royally By Member Of Amici Club While Here

The 12 hours spent in Clearfield by the 22 Juniata boys were enjoyed heartily by the visitors and the Amici boys as well. It was an exceptional treat for the R. Y. Y. M. C. A. boys; the billiard table, the bowling alleys, games and the swimming pool particularly were entirely new to them as the Juniata boys do not have these privileges and features in their building. When the swimming pool doors were thrown open the visitors were astonished at the sparkling water and white tank which holds 60,000 gallons of filtered water. They were tired but a good shower and refreshing dip in the pool put new vigor into them.

The boys left Juniata at 1:20, a little behind schedule, according to telephone message received. The enthusiasm of youth and the bright clear weather soon overcame this handicap and 5:15 found them at Philadelphia where they sent in another phone message. The Y. M. C. A. hurriedly relayed this to the members of the Amici Club and they were ready to receive them an hour earlier than schedule. The Juniata boys made the distance in six hours and ten minutes, the courier and his torch arriving at 7:30. Many citizens were much disappointed in missing the boys who came in ahead of time; the fire consumed the situation, as the runners arrived during the excitement. Daniel Connelly and Raymond Mauer of the Amici Club met the boys at East End and ran in with Robert Roy, the fast sprinter of the Juniata High School, and the three made a fast finish to the Y. M. C. A. building.

The flaming torch was placed in the center of the lobby and was viewed by several hundred people during the evening. The following inscriptions were noted on the torch:

Spread my Message
Far and wide
In city street
By country side.

A Light I come
Across the Land
Send me on
By Foot and Hand.

Print not these words
Mark this Well
Let word of Mouth
My Message Tell.

To carry out the spirit of the torch the two messages that carry the meaning of the torch will not be printed. They are in the form of challenges to the youth of the nation from Dr. John R. Mott, who heads the Y. M. C. A. movement of North America, and Arthur N. Cotton, boys' work secretary for America. The hundred and fifty Clearfield men and boys, including the members of the Amici Club, who heard the messages read by the officers of the Juniata Hi-Y Club, are those who are privileged to tell the message to those who missed hearing it. A Greek inscription was on the torch meaning "Let those who have the Light of Knowledge carry it to others."

A brief ceremony was held at the appointed hour 8:45, and the three members of the Religious Work Committee and Board of Directors, R. Grant Ross, Paul Dietzel, and Wm. P. Trostle, were in charge. The latter, County Superintendent of Schools, explained the purpose of the meeting and welcomed the Juniata Hi-Y Club and the high ideals to which they have pledged themselves. Kenneth Davis, president of the Amici Club, gave in well chosen words the formal welcome. Boys' Work Secretary Paul Milburn, in charge of the Juniata Hi-Y, took charge of the presentation of the torch and the message was given by the club officers, headed by President Earl Troutwein.

Later at an informal reception, the boys exchanged ideas and outlined the activities of the two groups. Amici Ross Quigley entertained with a pleasing recitation, which was quickly responded to by a Hi-Y-an. Refreshments in the form of sandwiches, cocoa, ice cream and cakes were daintily served by the Amici Club under the direction of Mrs. G. Leslie Shannon. It was ladies' night in the swimming pool, and the boys waited until the swimming class had left the building; they lost no time after that in getting in for the swim before going to the homes of their hosts.

The following homes entertained boys in addition to the list printed in Friday's paper: Jack Kline, Lansing, Ohio, and a daughter, Miss Anna, at home.

"STINGING REBUKE" OF SENATE BY THE PRESIDENT STIRS UP DETERMINATION

By H. K. REYNOLDS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, April 12.—Smarting under what they termed the "stinging rebuke" of the Senate by President Coolidge, Democratic leaders announced today that they would wage a final fight to continue the investigation of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and his Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Not only did the minority chiefs resent the President's attack on the inquiry launched by Senator Couzens, Republican of Michigan, but they charged that the administration had gone on record as "challenging the very power and authority of congressional committees" in making investigations. One of those who was particularly up in arms was Senator Thomas J. Walsh, Democrat of Montana, who believes that, without naming him, the President has criticized his conduct of the investigation of naval oil reserves.

Renewing his own attack on the Secretary of the Treasury in the face of intimations that Mellon will quit the cabinet if "government by investigation" does not stop, Senator McKellar, Democrat of Tennessee, threatened to press for action on his resolution for investigation of Mellon's eligibility to hold office. The resolution has been permitted to rest on the table at the suggestion of Senator Robinson of Arkansas and other Democratic leaders.

The President's special message, defending Mellon and criticizing the Senate, was received enthusiastically by administration senators, who felt that they were henceforth to get real help from the White House in their campaign to turn the Senate from investigating to legislating.

Senator Watson, Republican of Indiana, who had opposed the halting of the Couzens inquiry before the President's message was delivered, described Mr. Coolidge's attitude as a "master stroke" while the insurgent Republicans and Democrats were quick to deny that Senator Couzens was actuated by personal motives alone in his assaults on Mellon and the Treasury Department.

Fire works were promised when the fight opens in the Senate, probably to the resolution of Senator Jones, Democrat of New Mexico, authorizing the Couzens committee to employ special counsel to assist in the internal revenue probe. The committee, over the protests of Senator Watson, who is the committee chairman, has already hired Francis J. Heney of California as special counsel, his salary to be paid by Couzens.

It was over the Heney incident that Watson and Couzens fell out and it was also the immediate cause of the sharp call down which the President gave the whole Senate.

Herewith is a copy of a letter from the secretary of the Treasury, Hon. Andrew W. Mellon, to me, which I feel constrained to transmit to the Senate for its information.

MANY BESIDE THE PENNSY WILL HAVE A SAY ABOUT CURTAILING OF SERVICE ON TYRONE DIVISION

AN EDITORIAL

It is rumored that when the P. R. R. new spring time table is issued there will be one train each way omitted from the schedule. This has not been decided upon yet, but it is being considered. If it comes, it may make quite a difference in our mail facilities, but the bus travel between here and Tyrone has increased almost daily. Some croakers declare that Philipsburg will get only what she deserves. But there was no petition from here for the new service, rather a protest. And even then the decision lay with The Public Service Commission, who granted the franchise and thereby assumed all responsibility in the matter.—Philipsburg Ledger.

The above from our esteemed contemporary mirrors a state of mind, rather than an expression of facts in the case from any of the angles touched upon. The editor of The Ledger is right in saying "there was no petition from Philipsburg asking for the present new service, rather a protest". That statement is absolutely right. The Philipsburg petition asked that a Philipsburg concern be given the certificate for a bus line between that town and Tyrone. Then when the Public Service Commission granted the Fullington people of Clearfield a franchise, our Philipsburg friends were poor sports enough to generally sign and present the protest against the service mentioned. However, it availed them nothing. The Fullington people put on their buses and their service has been growing daily ever since. We have no brief for Fullington's and, by the same token, no prejudice against the Pennsylvania Railroad. The franchise

Tamaqua, Pa., Canton, Ohio, Are The Scenes Of Assaults By Hooded Men

Pottsville, Pa., April 12 (INS.)—Ku Klux Klan operations in this district were the subject of several investigations today following the remarkable story told to Alderman Davis last night by Mae Clara Frantz of Tamaqua as a result of which four Shamokin men were free on bail today, pending a further hearing charged with forcible entry to Mrs. Frantz's home.

In her story, Mrs. Frantz declared her home was invaded by the four men—Lee Miller, William Anderson, Guy Quigley and Francis Wildsmith—garbed in Ku Klux hoods, and an attempt made to discipline her for alleged misconduct with Howard Ware, neighbor.

Failing to get a confession, she said, they blindfolded her and took her into a woods four miles away, where by exhibiting revolvers they terrified her into admitting guilt of indiscretion with Ware.

The Shamokin men claim the case is one of mistaken identity but Mrs. Frantz says she is positive in her identification.

"The most terrifying thing to me is the threat of these men to return," she said today. "But my husband is prepared for them and I'll have ample protection."

Pottstown, Pa., April 12 (INS.)—Authorities here reiterated their determination today to restrict the public demonstrations of Ku Klux Klansmen gathered on the outskirts of the city to initiate a class of 200 men but they were dispersed by a squad of state troopers headed by Lieutenant Joseph O'Boyle. No disorder ensued.

Canton, Ohio, April 12 (INS.)—Lloyd Shaw, 22 year old Canton youth who was brutally beaten and horse-whipped Wednesday night by a masked band in a woods near Massillon, today broke down and told authorities here a hair-raising story of how he had been roused up to a tree and a knife brandished over his body as his captors threatened to perform a serious operation upon him for alleged relations with the pretty 23 year old wife of Robert Webb.

BONUS BILL PASSES SENATE COMMITTEE

Washington, April 12 (INS.)—The soldiers bonus bill was favorably reported to the Senate today by the Finance committee.

The bill as reported was practically identical with that passed by the House, providing for paid up insurance policies to World War veterans in lieu of cash.

The principal difference in the two bills was an amendment adopted this morning, including 11,000 women who saw service as Yeomanettes within the provision of eligibility.

Miss Katherine Eisenhauer is home to spend her vacation with her parents.

900 WILL ATTEND DINNER TO MELLON AT PITTSBURG, PA.

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 12 (INS.)—Nine hundred prominent financiers and businessmen from all sections of the United States will attend a banquet here tonight in honor of Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon.

Samuel Rea, president of the Pennsylvania railroad arrived here last night bringing several New York and Philadelphia guests in his private car.

M. A. Traylor, President of the First Guaranty Trust Company of Chicago; C. Bascom Slem, the President's Secretary; John T. Adams, Republican National Chairman, and Charles H. Sabin, President of the Guaranty Trust company of New York are included in the guests.

FIND BODY OF MAN WOMAN CONFESSED THAT SHE MURDERED

Middletown, Conn., April 11. (INS.)—Buried in a fertilizer pit, where Mrs. Johanna Tell told New York detectives it would be, the body of Charles Blair was found today. A previous search had failed to disclose the body and state police were beginning to doubt the reported confession of the woman that she had killed Blair and hidden his body in the pit.

The body was found under a heap of rubbish, fully clothed but not hatched to bits as Mrs. Tell had said. She said she shot Blair when he threatened to attack her with an axe for refusing to live with him as his wife. Blair's shoes, taken off to make the body fit the hole, were found about 25 feet away. The body was buried three feet below the surface, facing downward. The man's throat had been cut so deeply as almost to sever the head. A bullet wound was found in the left temple.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Reese and little daughter Janet left this morning for Altoona, where they will spend the week-end with Mrs. D. O. Nelson.

DO MEN MARRY FOR LOVE WHEREAS WOMEN MAKE A BUSINESS OF IT? COURSE IN MATRIMONY IS PLANNED

New York, April 12 (INS.)—Do men marry for love whereas women make a business of it? In quest of the answer, 25 men of all ages will today sign up—at $10 per sign—for a course in matrimony said to be the first of its kind, inaugurated at the Central Y. M. C. A. Brooklyn, with the object of preparing young men for marriage.

Twenty-five signed for the course last night, and showed the Rev. Harry L. Everett, pastor of the First

TWO NEW CASES OF SMALLPOX OUTSIDE OF BOROUGHS LINE

The small pox situation in Clearfield borough proper is just as comfortable at this time as one could expect under the circumstances. Miss Clara Steele, the first victim to be taken down, has entirely recovered and was released from quarantine today.

The two colored men who have the disease are getting along fairly good. Their East End boarding house, where they have been quarantined since it was discovered they were suffering with the smallpox.

The same satisfactory state of affairs cannot be said of the situation in the township. Dr. J. Paul Francis and Health Officer John P. Smith yesterday were out to the home of Gus Tyson at the sewer pipe works for the purpose of having Dr. Francis give the final once over to Dan Patterson, the second victim of smallpox in that section, who had recovered from the disease and was due to be released from quarantine today.

Dr. Francis found Patterson entirely recovered and so far as he was concerned was subject to release from quarantine.

After a careful examination of Patterson and a favorable verdict on him, Dr. Francis turned to Mr. and Mrs. Tyson, who have been quarantined in their home with Patterson. He quickly found that the quarantine would remain up on the Tyson home for there or four more weeks as Mr. and Mrs. Tyson had both developed small-bodied man-sized cases of smallpox.

When placed in quarantine Tyson and his wife both claimed to have had the small pox, while living in the north, but they were evidently mistaken. Both were vaccinated also when Patterson was found to have the disease, but the genus had evidently been planted before that time and were even then incubating and developed during the time of the quarantine.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Tyson have well-developed cases of the disease but neither is very sick with it.

DISTRICT FIREMEN'S CONVENTION TO BE HELD AUGUST 20-24th

The Executive Committee of the Central Pennsylvania District Volunteer Firemen's Association met at Clearfield yesterday afternoon for the purpose of fixing the date for the 1924 convention and transacting such other business as was presented to the committee. The meeting was held in the Borough building and was called to order at 1:00 o'clock twenty-six representatives of the different companies in the district were present.

The last convention at Dallas selected Patton as the place for holding the 1924 convention, but the matter of fixing the date for same is always in the hands of the Executive Committee. The meeting decided the convention should be held at Patton on August 20, 21 and 22. The Patton fire company had a large delegation at the meeting, and these firemen reported that the townspeople generally are supporting the growth in their preparations for the big gathering and that already sufficient money has been raised to take care of the program projected.

The newly adopted district policy of forest conservation and reforestation was discussed at length. Data week-end with Mrs. D. O. Nelson.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

A sportsman, hunter or fisherman interested in wild life and the forest, as a lumber user dependent on the products for the necessities and comforts of life; as a citizen interested in the prosperity of this Commonwealth which depends on wooded lands, pure and constant water supply, the health and happiness of those living within its confines, you must be concerned with the forest fire problem now that the spring season and forest fire menace is at hand. Therefore and all others in the woods should take every precaution.

Many of themselves should approve the campaign of which Dr. William C. McCormack is one of the leading spirits, for the better protection of the game. There is no question that game laws are granted too freely and with too few restrictions as to the number of licenses, for example, in California, for example, a license confers the privilege of killing 25 bucks a day for a half month; and most of the game laws are equal offenders. It is plain that even the establishment of game laws cannot prevent the extermination of game under such conditions.

The purpose of the permanent wild life protection fund is not only to secure the public interest, but also to create a public sentiment which will make legislation effective. When sportsmen come to see the folly of destroying game wholesale the public will be won. Many do see it. They are showing a gratifying disposition to cooperate with conservation commissions and game wardens. But the game laws have no scruples. They do not keep within even the present too liberal restrictions. They are too game preserving and slaughterous.

Pennsylvania has a better record than most states. A very large number of licenses are granted here—482,137—but the sportsmen, we are told, do not take the initiative in the long closed seasons and shoot up their own sport companies and give the game a chance to get the spirit which is cultivated everywhere.

formation. Also a copy of the resolution adopted by the committee investigating the Bureau of Internal Revenue. This is done because it seems incredible that the Senate of the United States would knowingly approve the past and proposed conduct of one of its committees, which this letter reveals.

There exists, and always should exist, every possible comity between the executive departments and the Senate. Whatever may be considered as being predicated upon the deceased alien's declaration, but upon the fact that such declaration was made and the declarant died before completing his declaration. That fact of itself is a sufficient basis for a petition by the widow, or a child who was a minor at the time of the father's death.

If you're an only child—"The Lord deliver me," Dr. Caroline Hedger, Chicago child expert of the Elizabeth McCormick foundation fund said recently.

"In most cases the only child is abnormal," Dr. Hedger said. "He gets too much attention. A very high percentage of them suffer from malnutrition and they don't get the contact that the children who have brothers and sisters get."

"No family, on the average, has its best child until the fourth. The finest children are those born from the fourth to the eighth. The only child doesn't get into the game of life early like the children of large families."

necessary for the information of the Senate or any of its committees, in order better to enable them to perform their legislative or other constitutional functions, ought always to be furnished willingly and expeditiously by any department.

The executive branch has nothing that it would wish to conceal from any legitimate inquiry on the part of the Senate. But it is recognized both by law and by custom that there is certain confidential information which it would be detrimental to the public service to reveal. Such information as can be disclosed, I shall always unhesitatingly direct to be laid before the Senate. I recognize also that it is perfectly legitimate for the Senate to indulge in political discussions and partisan criticism.

Beyond Legitimate Requirement
But the attack which is being made on the Treasury Department goes beyond any of the legitimate requirements. The request for a list of the companies in which the Secretary of the Treasury was alleged to be interested, for the purpose of investigating their tax returns, have been dictated by some other motive than a desire to secure information for the purpose of legislation.

The adoption of the resolution already referred to is apparently subject to the same criticism.

The Senate resolution appointing this commission is not drawn in terms, which purpose to give any authority to the committee to delegate their authority, or to employ agents and attorneys. The appointment of an agent and attorney to act in behalf of the United States but to be paid by some other source than the public treasury, is in conflict with the spirit of Section 1704 of the revised statutes, the act of March 3, 1917.

The constitutional and legal rights of the Senate ought to be maintained at all times. Also the same must be said of the executive departments. But these rights ought not to be used as a subterfuge to cover unwarranted intrusion. It is the duty of the Executive to resist such intrusion and to bring to the attention of the Senate its serious consequences. That I shall do in this instance.

Rights Are Violated
Under a procedure of this kind the constitutional guarantees against unwarranted search and seizure breaks down, the prohibition against what amounts to a government charge of criminal action without the formal presentation of a grand jury is evaded, the rules of evidence which have been adopted for the protection of the innocent are ignored, the department becomes the victim of vague, unformulated and indefinite charges and instead of a government of law we have a government of lawlessness.

Against the continuance of such conditions I enter my solemn protest and give notice that in my opinion the departments ought not to be required to participate in it. If it is to be continued, if the government is to be thrown into disorder by it, the responsibility for it must rest on those who are undertaking it. It is time that we return to a government under and in accordance with the usual forms of the law of the land. The state of the Union requires the immediate adoption of such a course.

"Modern Conveniences"

That means one thing to some—quite another thing when you come to us with your desire to make your home as convenient as possible. Time was when electric lights, toilet and bath, water in the house were considered as "All the Modern Conveniences". But conveniences have changed and we have kept pace with the change.

Would your grandmother have thought of turning a button and having the ironing board come out of its place in the wall? Ironing thru, just a little lift, another turn of the button and the ironing board's out of the way until next week. Then, too, the breakfast nooks. Greatest labor savers ever designed for the family where Dad gets an early start for business, the kiddies follow then for school and then the little tots under school age come to be served. No dining room all cluttered up, no extra linen to be laundered.

Now, these are just two of the Ultra-Modern suggestions we have for you when you bring your ideas to us to have us give you an estimate on a really modern home. "All these things cost money," you say? Much less than you'd imagine. Let's show you, whether for your new home or to add to the conveniences in your present home.

Lesson for April 13

ELIJAH AND THE STRUGGLE WITH BAAL

LESSON TEXT—1 Kings 18:17-46.
GOLDEN TEXT—"No man can serve two masters."—Matt. 6:24.
PRIMARY TOPIC—God Hears Elijah's Prayer.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Elijah on Mt. Carmel.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Conflict between Jezebel and Elijah.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—How Elijah Won the Victory.

1. Elijah's Message to Ahab (vv. 17-18).
When Jezebel became the wife of King Ahab, she waged a savage warfare against God's prophets, killing all she could find, thus seeking to abolish the true religion and set up idolatry instead. Elijah suddenly appeared, announcing the suspension of moisture (1 Kings 17:1) as a judgment upon the people for their idolatry. He sounded three striking notes in his message:

(1) "As the Lord God of Israel liveth—He knew that he represented the living God, therefore did not fear."
(2) "Before whom I stand"—Because Elijah stood before God, he could stand before Ahab.
(3) "There shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word."—Drought was the punishment for Jezebel (Deut. 11:16, 17).

2. A Challenge to Baal Worship (1 Kings 18:17-40).

As soon as Elijah had delivered his message concerning the drought, he retired from the king's sight, while the penalty of the king's sins should be visited upon the land.

1. Elijah Shows Himself to Ahab (vv. 17, 18).

(1) Ahab's question (v. 17). His aim in this question was no doubt to intimidate Elijah, to rive him into submission. The devil goes about as a roaring lion (1 Pet. 5:8).

(2) Elijah's answer (v. 18). He dared the charge and boldly declared that the calamity which had befallen the nation was sent by the idolatry of Ahab and his people.

2. The Bold Challenge (vv. 19-24).

(1) The people assemble (v. 19, 20). At the urgent request of Elijah the king convened the people.

(2) The ringing call to decision (v. 21, 24).

a. The question asked (v. 21). Many of the people had not wholly forsaken God. They attempted to worship both God and Baal.

b. The silence of the people (v. 21). This may have been because of fear of the king, or ignorance, for many were of the opinion that to be religious was the only thing necessary, irrespective of the being worshipped.

c. The method of decision (v. 22-24). Two sacrifices were to be provided, one to be offered to Baal, the other to God. The one who answered by fire was to be the God.

(3) The test applied (vv. 23-24). Elijah gave the prophets of Baal the first opportunity to prove to the people as to whether Baal was a real god.

(4) The offering by Elijah (v. 20, 25).

a. People invited near (v. 30). There are no secrets in God's word.

b. The altar repaired (vv. 30-32).

c. Twelve stones representing the united nation.

d. The offering on the altar (vv. 33-35). After the bullock was in place he had four barrels of water three times emptied upon the sacrifice and the wood so as to fill the trench about the altar.

e. Elijah's prayer (vv. 36, 37). This was a model prayer.

(5) It was based upon covenants (v. 36). All real prayer rests upon covenant relationships.

(6) Its object was God's exaltation (v. 36). Elijah was jealous for God's glory, but the only thing that he asked for himself was to be known as God's servant.

(7) It was for the salvation of the people (v. 37). His heart yearned after Israel. He wanted them to come to know God.

f. The result (vv. 38, 39).

(a) The fire of the Lord fell and consumed, not only the sacrifice, but the wood, stones and dust, even licking up the water in the trenches.

(b) The people fell on their faces and confessed that the Lord was the God.

4. The Execution of Baal's Prophets (v. 40). Israel's government was a theocracy. God was their King. Idolatry was treason against the King.

gate Hoover of the Bellewood fire company said his company had arranged to plant 2000 trees which were contributed by the State Forestry Department. He urged that other companies do likewise.

The short sighted policy of Governor Pinchot in preventing any effort by the last legislature to improve the Penfield road leading to the State Nursery in Pine township came in for some unfavorable comment.

When it was made known that we have a fine tree nursery cut on the mountain but you can't get to and from it with either wagon or truck to get the trees into the hands of those desiring to plant them.

Announcement was made of the recent deaths of H. L. Morgan, of Philadelphia, and James A. Gleason, of DuBois, members of the District Association, and committees appointed to prepare suitable memorial resolutions for presentation at the coming convention.

BUY THE TIRE WITH THE TREAD THAT WRITES GOOD-WEAR

The purchase of a Goodyear tire today is an investment in known quality.

Well informed motorists admit without argument the extremely high quality of Goodyear Cord Tires. Sometimes, however, they fail to realize that this quality is to be had at no additional cost. As a matter of fact, Goodyear prices are no higher than the prices asked for ordinary tires. In other words, you pay for Goodyear Quality.

or certificate granted for this bus line was handed out by the Public Service Commission after due and careful consideration, and with all the facts before them. The Public Service Commission has never been blamed in our hearing with working a hard-ship on any public service commission, and we don't believe they did that in this matter.

The Pennsylvania Railroad gets a wonderful lot of business off the Tyrone Division—in fact it is touted in Pennsylvania circles as the best paying division of the system, and it is silly for anyone to say or believe that, in a spirit of pique, at the loss of a little revenue, due entirely to better accommodations as to time of travel by the bus company, they can pull off one or more, or any, trains.

The question of service to the public by railroads, and all other public service corporations, is a matter solely and entirely for the Public Service Commission and the people living in the region served or affected and before the admittedly inadequate passenger service of the Tyrone branch, which made the Tyrone bus line a necessity, is further curtailed by the elimination of all or any one train the two agencies mentioned will have all the chance in the world to have their say, and if such time arrives there will be no mistaking what is said.

The passenger business of the T. & C. branch makes up an almost negligible portion of the vast earnings of the Pennsylvania Railroad. That railroad has been given its invaluable franchise right to ask that business, with added right of eminent domain and other perquisites from friendly legislation, and in return for all of that they incur certain obligations, one of which is the supplying of adequate train or passenger service to the regions traversed by that railroad.

The railroad company, though it has long essayed the part, is not alone to determine the needs of the region in the way of passenger service, the road's patrons and the state governmental agency has something to say about that end of it. So the next time John Creaker tells you how many and what trains the Tyrone branch is taking off the branch by reason of the Tyrone bus line, just ask him to tell you what the road's patrons and the Public Service Commission are going to do about it. Also ask him to tell the Fullington Auto Bus people about it, so they can get another bus or two ready for business if, and when the train or trains are taken off.

WHEELS—AND WHEELS, BUT GIRLS ARE GIRLS
By FLORENCE DAVIES
A covered wagon heroine has been discovered in Los Angeles. Not a movie heroine. If there had been a clairvoyant to prophesy the marvels of the screen when Mrs. Elizabeth Goodrich journeyed across the plains and on through the wilds of the Rockies in 1842, such a one would have been in danger of a witchcraft label.
A blooming girl of 18 was Mistress Betty when she rode in the great slowly rocking canvas ship of the American desert, as the hooped wagons used to be called. That means that she is 100 years old now, and that she is still a girl at heart, and a modern one at that, is proved by the fact that she went into a barber shop the other day and had her hair bobbed! Here was a "story" indeed, and the wires sent it flying. But this century-old flapper had wise brains under her hair-bob, the interviewers found, when they questioned her about the difference between the girls of long ago and the girl of today.
"It isn't the haircut that marks change, but the going out of the spinning wheel that the girl of my day always took her evening turn at," quoth Mrs. Goodrich.
And there you have whole long chapters of history condensed into a sentence. With the spinning wheel and the loom, the candle molds, the heavy tailors' shears, the kettle of soft soap boiling outdoors over the fire, went such a big part of woman's

Think of owning a Car with a body finish like this!

For the first time in motor car history—Oakland has successfully combined beauty and permanence in an automobile body finish. This extraordinary achievement is made possible by the use of an entirely new substance—Duco, the remarkable qualities of which provide—

- A finish in a beautiful Oakland Blue, distinctive and striking;
- A finish which, though covered with mud, can quickly be restored to its original beauty, without scratching, by wiping with a dry cloth;
- A finish impervious to all weather, to sun, rain, salt air and alkaline conditions;
- A finish so resistant to harm that sulphuric acid and the chemicals of fire extinguishers have been sprayed upon it, then wiped off, leaving no marring traces;
- A finish so enduring that it will retain its original beauty and luster indefinitely without checking or dulling.

See this remarkable finish and let us demonstrate its rare qualities to you. Examine also the many other advanced and exclusive features. You, too, will realize then why the True Blue Oakland is so frequently called the surprise car of 1924.

BEFORE BABIES WERE BORN

Mrs. Oswald Benefited by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Girardville, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my last two babies came. It keeps me in perfect health and I am on my feet getting meals and doing all my housework until an hour before the baby is born. A friend told me to take it and I have used ten bottles since I heard about it. I recommend the Vegetable Compound whenever I can. Just yesterday a friend was telling me how miserable she felt, and I said 'If you start taking Lydia E. Pinkham's you will feel fine. Now she is taking it.'—Mrs. P. J. Oswald, Jr., 406 W. Ogden St., Girardville, Pa.

Mrs. Nicola Paluzzi Says
Mishawaka, Indiana.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness before my babies were born. I was weak and tired out all the time and it helped me. When I had inward inflammation the doctor treated me, but it did not help me, so I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and it helped me right away. I will always have your medicines."—Mrs. NICOLA PALUZZI, 416 E. Broadway, Mishawaka, Indiana.

Camshaft

Drop forged steel, case hardened, double heat treated. Cam integral. Extremely large bearing surfaces; these large removable bronze bushings. Less expensive construction involves operation of the camshaft in the crankcase casting, eliminating bushings. Also a smaller camshaft is less expensive. A new oversize camshaft is usually required after short service.

Parts You Never See They Are The Heart And Soul Of Hupmobile Goodness

Behind the Hupmobile parts display on view in our salesroom lies the story of Hupmobile owner satisfaction.

These parts—which look no different from parts of lesser quality but actually are vastly different—are the heart and soul of all the good you hear about the Hupmobile.

In them is bound up the long life of the car—all its virtues of low costs and few replacements of superior performance and high running economy.

The Hupp factory could use materials of lesser quality, it could manufacture them into parts at lower cost, if it chose.

But if that were to be done, the Hupmobile would sink to the dead level of motor cars, instead of being the superior automobile it is widely acknowledged to be.

Great Demonstration Starts Monday Morning

Miss Maxwell of the Utensils Company will arrive Monday morning and will start to show Clearfield women how to do their ironing much easier than they have ever done it before, with the

UTENCO ELECTRIC IRONER

UTENCO does the ironing in one-third the time required by hand and gives you more time for yourself and for your family.

UTENCO does away with the old, back-breaking hand ironing. It is small, moves easily on casters, can be stored in closet or bath room.

UTENCO utilizes the same ironing principle as the hand iron and polishes in the same way.

DON'T JUDGE this new ironer by ironing machines you have seen or heard of. It is different. It exactly meets your needs and the only way to judge it intelligently is by actually seeing it work—seeing it with your own eyes.

Open - All - Around construction enables you to slip a skirt, for example, over the feed roll just as you would over the ironing board.
